...signifying the separation between
God's holiness and humanity's sin.

Matthew 27:45-54

Then Jesus shouted again, and he released his spirit. At that moment the curtain in the sanctuary of the Temple was torn in two, from top to bottom.

- Matthew 27:50-51

The correlation between Jesus' death on the cross and the tearing of the Temple curtain is one of the most spiritually significant phenomena in scripture.

The perfect sacrifice

“without blemish”

for the whole of our sin

“pierced for our rebellion”

was complete.

“it is finished”

Jesus died on the cross.

The curtain tore in two.

Sin no longer separated.

ATONEMENT.

It was the precious blood of Jesus Christ,
the sinless, spotless Lamb of God.

- 1 Peter 1:19

On Good Friday We CONSIDER THE COST

Isaiah 53:3-10

All us of, like sheep, have strayed away. We have left God's paths to follow our own. Yet the Lord laid on him the sins of us all.

- Isaiah 53:6

The sacrifice of Jesus Christ means that our sin no longer has to separate us from God, and yet we continue to bear the burden of its weight...

Let us tear the “curtain” of our sin so that God May Dwell Among Us
